INSTRUCTIONS

1. Wipe soap dish clean with damp sponge.
2. Apply tape off-center across the face of the soap dish. You will have a bigger and smaller side. Tape another line on the bigger side to create a triangle. Your bowl should have a small triangle a big triangle and a half circle.
3. Paint the big triangle with #62 using a small round brush. (2 coats, allow to dry between coats.)
4. Make bubble mix with 4 tablespoons of water, 2 tablespoons of paint (#85), and a drop of dish soap. Mix well. Using a straw blow gently into the mix to create bubbles.
5. Add bubbles to the painted area. Allow the bubbles to pop and dry.
6. Carefully peel off the tape, separating the painted area and the small triangle. With a lightly damp sponge wipe away any paint in the small triangle.
7. Using a medium round brush paint in the small triangle with #46. (3 coats, allow to dry between coats.)
8. Carefully peel off the tape left and wipe away any paint on the half circle with a lightly damp sponge.
9. Using a medium round brush paint in the half circle with #98. (3 coats, allow to dry between coats.)
10. Tape the Mickey Template over tracing paper and trace onto the face of the soap dish. (If the tracing is difficult to see, gently go over it with a pencil.)
11. With a medium round brush paint Mickey with #31.
12. Add 3 horizontal horizontal line accents with #31 and a small detail brush midway onto the triangle, making one line longer than the other with the top being the shortest. (3 coats, allow to dry between coats.)
13. Create the illusion of Mickey's buttons by dipping your index finger into #67 paint and applying them on the half circle.
14. Paint side of the soap dish using a small round brush and #27 (3 coats, allow to dry between coats.)
